

Thomas Barnes, MD

Dr. Thomas Barnes, M.D. is a Diplomate of The American Board of Cosmetic surgery and specializes in Full-Service Cosmetic Surgery procedures. He has a special interest in “Lunchtime procedures” - Lunchtime Makeovers as he calls them because he believes there are many people who are interested in smaller procedures with less downtime which still offer significant options for rejuvenation, improved self-esteem, and just plain feeling better about oneself.

Dr. Barnes is seen frequently on TV on all of the various News programs as well as radio shows. He is a recurring guest with Jamie and Danny in the Mornings on Star Radio 98.7 FM.

Dr. Thom Barnes is a sought after media guest because of his ability to educate viewers and listeners about the latest procedures and what they offer those interested in aesthetic self-improvement.

In addition, Dr. Barnes is a Botox Physician Trainer for Allergan Pharmaceutical - the people who make Botox. He trains physicians on the aesthetic use of Botox. In short, he is a Botox expert.

Dr. Barnes and his staff, Lindsay, Nina, and Aida all live in the Newport Beach area and are committed to our Cosmetic Surgery practice and to our esteemed patients. Our goal is to help you achieve your aesthetic goals while providing the highest level of care and respect for you as clients, patients, and as individuals.
